

Cliffhanger

This property occupies a spectacular cliff top location with breath taking views of The Indian Ocean second to none. Built to the highest specification offering luxurious residence and ultimate relaxation. Where you will find exclusive high quality Italian marble floors with the bedrooms finished in aged oak solid wood flooring to greet you. The whole house is double glazed to retain heat and reflect sunlight also adding to extra security. All rooms have fold stack or sliding doors offering free-flow access to the entertainment areas, decks and pool. The owner of this property is committed to environmental sustainability with rainwater harvesting facility and the use of solar energy for power and heating. These are some of the measures incorporated in this beautiful state of the art holiday home. This luxury villa sleeps 10 and due to the balconies and drops is not small child friendly.

