

Dassen Island 61

This house truly is so inviting. Utmost care has been taken in the décor and feel of this property. It is a spacious holiday home which has five lovely bedrooms. On the main living area there is a modern well equipped kitchen, dining area and sumptuous lounge. A separate cosy television lounge is also on this level for convenient living. Off the dining area is a fantastic outdoor sitting and dining area perfect for al fresco dining and entertaining. The master bedroom is also on this level. Downstairs are another four large bedrooms. There is another television lounge downstairs. The upstairs bedroom and living areas all lead onto a wooden deck and most of the downstairs rooms open onto the garden or wooden deck and pool area. This property is centrally located and a quick drive into town and to the beaches.

