

Moonpath

The main living space is situated on the first floor with an open plan lounge, bar and living area leading out onto a generous wooden deck. Here you will also find a fully equipped kitchen and scullery as well as an en suite bedroom (bath and shower) with queen size bed.

The second floor comprises of three en suite bedrooms. The first sports a king size bed with shower and bath. The second bedroom offers two single beds as well as a shower and bath, while the third bedroom is furnished with a queen size bed and spacious shower. The second floor is completed with a cozy TV room.

The 5th en-suite bedroom is downstairs, on the ground level, with a double bed and its own patio. Special touches that add to this jewel's appeal include direct and private access to the sandy shores of Seal Point beach, a sheltered, private swimming pool with braai facilities, lock-up double garage, and your own garden to enjoy. Two TVs, a sound system, and every deck offering inspiring ocean views round off the allure of Moonpath.

